

AWARD PLAYERS BY LOT SYSTEM

Cincinnati, Ohio, February 8.—The National Baseball Commission announced here today that players selected by major league clubs for 1913 who have been claimed by more than one National Association club have been awarded by lot. These players will not be available to the minor league clubs except in cases where their services are no longer desired by major league clubs.

In 1912 sixty-nine players were drafted by the major league clubs. Twenty-seven of these players have been claimed by clubs of class AA and A in case they are released during the season of 1913 by the major league clubs now having title to them.

Under the old provision of the national agreement the drafted players went back to the clubs from which they were secured without being given an opportunity to advance to a classification higher than that of the minor league club from which they were obtained.

Under the new arrangement seventeen players out of the twenty-seven claimed, advance in their profession under the new provisions of the national agreement.

YELLOW JACKETS LOSE.

William and Mary Takes Measure of Past Quilt from Ashland College.

Williamsburg, Va., February 8.—William and Mary's basketball quint defeated Randolph-Macon here tonight 24 to 25. The local collegians started with a rush and never relinquished the lead, though the Yellow Jackets braced towards the close of the first half and almost tied the score. The half ended 15 to 14 in favor of the locals. The game was poised from start to finish, numerous fouls for holding being called. For William and Mary Metcalf, Turner and Jones starred, while for Randolph-Macon Brown and Tatum did the best work.

PICK BALL TEAMS ALPHABETICALLY

Bush, second; Barry, short; Baker, third; Bescher, left; Bates, centre; Birmingham, right; Bresnahan, catcher; and Benton, Bender, Bediet and Baumgarden, pitchers. Byrne and Burns were selected as substitutes for this team.

Taking the positions in the same order, the other teams were as follows: C. Chase, Collins, Cuthaw, Cree, Clarke, Cobb, Crawford Cady, Coombs, Cheney, Crandall and Cardwell. Subs: Devlin and Derrick.

The H's: Hobitzell, Huggins, Hauser, Henry, Hummel, Hoffman, Harzell, Herzig, Hendrix, Heimon, Hall and Hyatt.

The L's—Luderus, Lajoie, Loudon, Lobert, Lewis, Lord, Leach, Lapp, Layender, Lake, Lange and Leifeld. The subs—Laporte and Livingston.

The M's—Merkle, Melonis, McBride, Mowery, Marsans, Murray, Mitchell, Meyer, Mathewson, Margard, Moore and McConnell. The subs—Miller and Magee.

The S's—Stahl, Stock, Shafer, Smith, Snodgrass, Speaker, Schulte, Schalk, Suggs, Seaton, Shultz and Steele. Subs: Salier and Sheppard.

The W's—Wiltie, Heinle, Wagner, Honus, Wagner, Weaver, Williams, Wheat, Wolter, Wilson, Walsh, Wood, White and Warhop. Subs—Wingo and Welchone.

Of course, the managers would be Greenham, Chance, Doolin, Hudgins, Lajoie, McGraw, Stahl and Honus Wagner. Some people might tell you that Wiltie could not play first base. Bush second, Cuthaw short or Weaver third, but as a matter of fact, these men can make a good deal better than an average showing at these positions.

After the teams were selected there was a hot discussion as to which one would win the alphabetical and mythical pennant. This dispute is still going on, and it seems improbable that any conclusion will be reached which will suit every one concerned before the real teams start South, and the rooters get some actual baseball news.

WITH PALACE BOWLERS BY R. N. (JAKE) ROWSEY

All bowlers qualified to represent Richmond in the tournament in Washington, D. C., which begins tomorrow, are prepared to make the trip. Richmond is sending four strong class A teams to the Capital City tournament, and it is expected that the local boys will give the Baltimore and Washington experts a hard run.

An even break is all that is expected by the locals, as some good material will be sent to the tourney.

The games last week in the Palace Ducky League were good, as usual. The Palace team won three games from the News Leader team Monday night in a quick and snappy contest.

Wednesday night the game between the Alices and Times-Dispatch teams was postponed until a later date.

The Palace team inched up a few points in the percentage column. The Journals and Virginians are battling hard for first place.

The Alices and Journals play tomorrow night. Both teams have strengthened recently, and good scores are expected.

DOWN THE ALLEYS
BY WHIT WHITMAN.

Yes, the bowlers are ready for the big show, as was plainly seen this week on the alleys. Every one seems to be interested, and all you can hear now in bowling circles is Washington; when are you going to Washington? What are you going to make? Who do you think will be the high man? Who are you going to shoot with? Which team do you think is the best? These or similar questions are being asked from morning until night. Not only are the bowlers interested in the tournament, but the public in general. Yes, Washington is going to hold a tournament, and a great big tournament. News comes from all three cities—Richmond, Washington and Baltimore—that this

TO MAKE CHANGES IN FIRST PLANS

Further Consideration for Open-Air Meet of Richmond Amateur Athletic Federation.

Further consideration of the plans for the first open air track meet which will be held by the Richmond Amateur Athletic Federation, May 3, at the State Fair Grounds, will be given at an adjourned meeting of the special committee named for this purpose to be held early in the coming week. While the executive committee failed of a quorum Friday night, the plan as proposed by the special committee was discussed informally, and some changes suggested. These changes will be incorporated in the formal report of the committee.

All organizations represented in the federation will be requested to enter relay teams in the Blues-College meet to be held March 8. The executive committee is of the opinion that relay races between several teams representing one institution or organization will be of greater interest than just one team from each of the organizations racing against teams from all other organizations. As soon as the special committee completes its work, which will also include recommendations as to registration fees to be charged, the executive committee will gather.
